New Hanse 410 nominated for European Yacht of the Year

Greifswald, 1 September 2023: The new Hanse 410, the latest model in Hanse's revolutionary new range, has been nominated for the European Yacht of the Year 2024 award. The Hanse 410 will have its world premiere at the Cannes Yachting Festival from 12-17 September.

With its unrivalled volume in the 40-foot class, its sophisticated 18 layout variants and its exceptionally large cockpit, the Hanse 410 offers every conceivable comfort in the 40-foot class. The hydrodynamic hull design with chines at the bow and stern, her slim waterline and her high sporty rig ensure uncompromising performance and ease of sailing, which is typical of all Hanse yachts.

To ensure that most destinations can be reached in a climate-friendly manner even without wind, the Hanse 410 for the first time offers optional electric propulsion with an enormous range of up to 55 nautical miles. Performance sails made from recycled material or a fuel cell and solar panels to power the electrical appliances are further options for even more sustainable sailing.

The European Yacht of the Year Award is the world's most important boatbuilding award for sailing yachts worldwide. The "Oscar" of yachting is awarded by a jury of twelve leading European magazines that are recognised far beyond their respective countries.
